

U.S. SUBMERGENT
INSIDER

Under the River & Around the Corner 70-CY Creatively Removed from 660-Feet of Pipe, While in Operation

A large section of interceptor sewer pipe running alongside the Hillsborough River in the City of Tampa was experiencing reduced capacity due to a buildup of sand and grit. Get details of how the USST crew maneuvered through parallel siphons under the river and took a hard 115 degree turn in order to remove material successfully.

READ MORE

USST at FRWA Conference in Daytona Beach

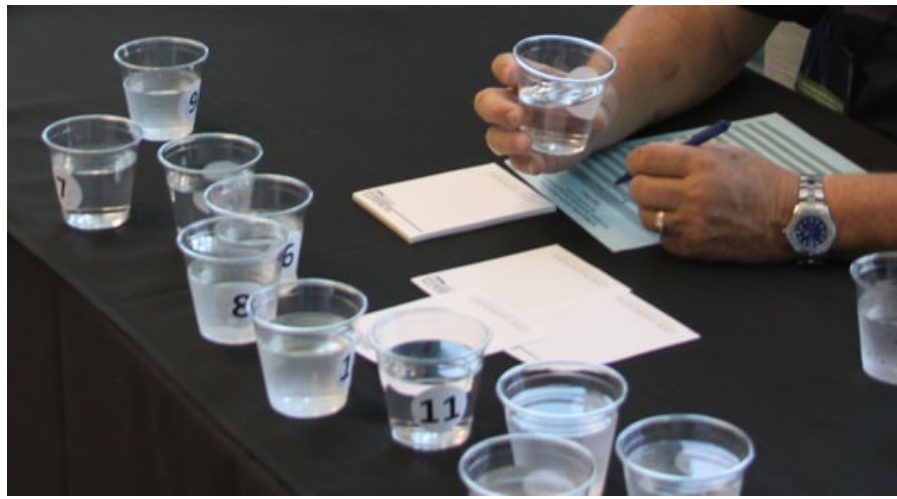

Last week, USST exhibited for the 5th year in a row at the 2018 Florida Rural Water Association Conference. We enjoyed meeting with customers, partners and friends, making new acquaintances, and can't wait for next year's event.

READ MORE

Who's Got the Quench Factor?

Best Tasting Water Contest Results, FRWA Conference

18 utilities from across the state of Florida gathered at the FRWA Conference last week to compete for the title of Best Tasting Water. Ben Lewis of the FRWA gives us the scoop as to how this contest works and find out who took the honor of first place.

READ MORE

CONTACT US

VISIT US

FREE QUOTE

Our GritGone ProcessSM | Watch The Video

Linked in

Our mailing address is:

U.S. Submergent Technologies
6450 University Blvd, Unit 1
Winter Park, FL 32792

© 2018

U.S. Submergent Technologies
All rights reserved.

unsubscribe from all emails | update subscription preferences